

Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS)

Division of Health Service Regulation (DHSR)

Geriatric Aide Registry Information

Last Updated:
June 14, 2024

Table of Contents

Registry Information

1. North Carolina Nurse Aide I Registry
2. Training Programs
3. Expiration Date
4. Renewal Requirements
5. Legal Name, Address, and Contact Information Updates
6. Registry Verification

Registry Information

North Carolina Nurse Aide I Registry

Geriatric Aides must be listed on the North Carolina Nurse Aide I Registry prior to being listed on the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry.

Registry Information

Training Programs

- Instructors should notify DHSR of the individuals who successfully passed the North Carolina state-approved Geriatric Aide training program to be listed on the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry.
- Instructors should include the North Carolina Nurse Aide I Registry listing number of each individual when notifying DHSR.

Registry Information

Expiration Date

There is no expiration date associated with the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry.

Registry Information

Renewal Requirements

There are no renewal requirements associated with the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry.

Registry Information

Legal Name, Address, and Contact Information Updates

- It is the responsibility of the Geriatric Aide to update their legal name, address, and contact information in the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry.
- Click here to obtain the Name and Address Change Form.

Registry Information

Registry Verification

- Click here to verify a listing on the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry.
- Employers should keep a record of accessing the North Carolina Geriatric Aide Registry in their business files (e.g., the date and confirmation number from the registry).