

Nurse Aide I General Information for the Competency Examination

The competency examination is available to individuals that pass a North Carolina state-approved nurse aide I training program.

Credentia is the state-approved vendor that conducts the examination.

Examination information, including scheduling procedures, can be found in the Candidate Handbook or on the DHSR website.